- *Thank you for the opportunity to attend your job fair and speak with your students and faculty. We look forward to attending more of your fairs in the future.
  - *The brownies were delicious.
  - *Better turn out at this job fair and then several others in the recent past
- *Suggestion: make attending the job fair and talking with employers a requirement for full credit towards graduation. Students need to learn how to communicate effectively, prepare a resume, sell themselves and how to interview. Not many students are able to do that. They need training.
  - *Not sure about four hour time
- *Heard about job fair from email invite, social media, and newspaper, earlier end time preferred but not sure if job seekers preferred later end time? good food. Would prefer 2-5; 5 end time. Thanks!
  - *More job seekers would be helpful-but understood in the current market
- *earlier time preferred but would attend again at this slot due to attendance. Also a lot of solicitation from other businesses; not preferred. Thanks!
  - *very well attended compared to other fairs we have attended
  - *Great Event
  - *Thank you for everything!

  - *heard about the event - email invite, flyer, social media
  - *This was a great opportunity to network with the college and employers.
  - *Continue with your efforts. Job market is unique today. Thank you!
  - *Career track specific job fairs? probably a logistical challenge - maybe cluster life professions?
  - *would have loved more applicants. A great set up from the college. maybe professors can offer extra credit for next event.
- *Venue was great! Not a good pool of applicants in attendance. Event hours from 3-6 pm or have a Saturday job fair
  - *Time: Earlier in the day; continue to focus on community members finding careers
  - *Advertise on social media or a local businesses; only saw on marquee at college
  - *I feel the weather may have had an impact on the number of pot
- *I know there were articles in papers, but I don't subscribe to any. I saw the expo sign when driving past CC. I put in a search for job fair expo on CC website, but only saw the short article for job seekers, not employers. Luckily I searched again and found the employer article on Sept. 30! I've posted jobs on the workforce site (Guido?). I wish they would have emailed businesses who have posted w/them? So got on the wait list, but I'm here so it's all good!! Thank you! Laura Willoughby Manor Discovery Center.
  - *It was a little too long. I would start a little later next time.
- *Very organized. Good placement of tables. Food for employers was excellent. Chesapeake staff was very friendly and helpful.
  - *spoke with individuals but not really qualified for our positions. No resumes.
  - *how did you hear about the job fair, email invite and social media
- *I think the weather was a deterrent; out of your control. Maybe 3or 4 -6 instead of 3-7
